DOMESTIC SECTION 214 APPLICATION FILED FOR THE TRANSFER OF CONTROL OF CALENCE, LLC TO INSIGHT NETWORKING SERVICES, LLC

STREAMLINED PLEADING CYCLE ESTABLISHED

WC Docket No. 08-16

Comments Due: February 20, 2008

Reply Comments Due: February 27, 2008

On February 4, 2008, Calence, LLC (Calence) and Insight Networking Services, LLC (Insight) (collectively, Applicants) filed an application pursuant to section 63.03 of the Commission's rules to transfer control of Calence to Insight.¹ Calence, a Delaware limited liability company, provides resold local exchange and interstate telecommunications services in New York, New York. Insight, also a Delaware limited liability company, is an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Insight Enterprises, Inc., a publicly traded Delaware corporation that provides IT products and services. Applicants state that Insight does not provide telecommunications services and that it does not have any subsidiaries or affiliates that provide telecommunications services. Applicants further state that Insight Enterprises, Inc. does not have any 10 percent or greater shareholders. Pursuant to the terms of the proposed transaction, Insight Enterprises, Inc. will acquire 100 percent of the membership interests of Calence. Calence will be the surviving company. Applicants assert that a grant of the application will serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity. The proposed transaction is entitled to presumptive streamlined treatment under section 63.03(b)(1)(ii) of the Commission's rules because Insight, the transferee, is not a telecommunications provider.²
